HOLY HOUR OF REPARATION

Hosted by the IHM Sacred Heart Society

Thursday, July 2nd
From 6:00 to 7:00 PM in the Church

REPARATION IS RELEVANT!

What is a Holy Hour of Reparation? This is a devotional practice of spending one continuous hour in prayer to make amends (or "repair") for the sins, ingratitude, and offenses committed against God, particularly those directed at Jesus in the Eucharist.

Our Lord asks for reparation from His faithful friends: to console Him for the coldness and indifference of so many and to strive to love Him more and more to make up for those who do not love Him. Reparation is important during the times we live in today. And we know that once we encounter His love for us, we are never the same.

Venezuela. Mons. Azuaje: Prioritario atender heridos y buscar sobrevivientes

Ante el desastre causado por los dos terremotos que afectaron el centro y noreste de Venezuela, el presidente de Cáritas Venezuela exhorta a prestar atención a las miles de personas desaparecidas, posiblemente bajo los escombros, y a evaluar las infraestructuras todavía vulnerables a nuevos movimientos sísmicos. Situaciones que se suman a las deficiencias del sistema eléctrico, el agua potable y la sanidad ya en crisis. “Freedom Under Grace:” Pope Leo XIV’s early writings to be released in English

The English edition of “Freedom Under Grace” is set to hit bookshelves in September, bringing together homilies, addresses, messages, and letters written by Fr. Robert Francis Prevost during his years as Prior General of the Order of Saint Augustine. Cardinal Bychok: Ukraine is not alone, Church and Pope are with us

Cardinal Mykola Bychok, Bishop of the Eparchy of Saints Peter and Paul of Melbourne, Australia, speaks about the flag and cross from a Ukrainian soldier he gifted to the Pope and his hopes for the Extraordinary Consistory. Pope at Consistory Opening Mass: War is never blessed by God

Pope Leo XIV celebrates Mass to begin the Extraordinary Consistory and invites the Cardinals to reflect on the true freedom of faith and the gift of peace, stressing that "war is never worthy of humanity, and it is never blessed by God." By Fr. Johan Pacheco. The Extraordinary Consistory convened by Pope Leo XIV began on Friday, June 26, with the celebration of the Eucharist in St. Peter's Basilica. Cardinals have gathered in the Vatican on June 26-27 to reflect on matters concerning the Church and the world today. The meeting opened with Mass in St. Peter's Basilica, entrusting the work of the Consistory, which will conclude with the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. In his homily, the Pope reminded the Cardinals that the life-giving source of the Consistory is Christ Himself, as proclaimed in the Gospel: "I am the true vine" (Jn 15:1). He explained that "the Gospel itself prepares the ground for it to bear fruit: 'Remain in me, and I in you' (Jn 15:4)." He then reflected on three guiding principles for discernment during these days: sharing in the true freedom of faith, asking for the gift of peace in unity, and embracing harmony through obedience. "As we ask God to grant us strength and wisdom, it is significant that our Consistory takes place on the eve of the Solemnity of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul. Let us pause, then, to commemorate these two pillars of the Roman Catholic Church, the two missionary martyrs whose preaching became one with their lives, to the point of becoming part of Sacred Scripture," Pope Leo said. El Papa a los cardenales: Necesito su apoyo firme, franqueza y lealtad

En el discurso de apertura del Consistorio extraordinario, León XIV pidió a los cardenales su apoyo “firme, explícito y público” para ayudar hoy a nuestras Iglesias a anunciar el Evangelio con mayor fidelidad, libertad y credibilidad. “La misión no es una de las muchas tareas de la Iglesia. Es su razón de ser” Vatican News “Necesito su apoyo: firme, explícito y público. Necesito sentirme apoyado por ustedes como por hermanos” porque” el ministerio que el Señor me ha confiado no puede vivirse en soledad”. “You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation; announce the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.” (Antiphon before the Gospel)

Dear Brothers and Sisters: Grace and peace from our Lord Jesus Christ. This coming Saturday we are celebrating American Independence Day. As we continue to pray for this beautiful country, we ask the Lord to help us remember that we are called to be a holy nation and that he has also called us out of darkness into his light. Holiness is a call to follow Jesus closely and to make him the priority in our lives. As Mother Teresa used to say, “It is not just the privilege of the few but a call for all.” This Sunday’s first reading is a profound lesson on spiritual hospitality, where the Shunammite woman recognizes the prophet Elisha as a “Holy man of God” and makes room for him in her life. It is a great admonition for us in times when it seems we are losing this great value; where we see and treat others as strangers, forgetting that we all are brothers and sisters who have God as our Father. The Gospel confronts us with a truth that sometimes we fail to contemplate: Whatever we do unto others we do unto the Lord, even when we offer just a glass of water. I pray that we will not miss the passing by of the Lord, who constantly comes to us in mysterious ways. Scripture reminds us: “Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward, and whoever receives a righteous man, because he is a righteous man, will receive a righteous man’s reward” Matthew 10:37-42. Today’s Gospel tells us that the Lord does not want to occupy just a place in our lives, he wants to be the center of our lives. We should not interpret this as an egotistic attitude of a God who wants everything for Himself. On the contrary, he has emptied himself to give us his very life! When he becomes the center of our lives, he illuminates everything around us, and then we become more capable of loving others in the way He has loved us; with unconditional, pure and sacrificial love! We truly need to make space for God to work in our lives. Like the woman of today’s first reading, it is necessary for us to make room for the prophet, unknowingly opens herself up to God’s grace. In the same way we must prioritize Divine connection over our material pursuits and share the gifts we are given. We can never pay God back for what he has done for us, because God in his immeasurable love has blessed us in Christ and in his generosity has given us even His very life. I pray that as the IHM family of faith we can be a more welcoming and generous community, attentive to the word of the Lord whose has chosen us in Christ! Happy Fourth of July 2026.

Sincerely In Christ,
Father Alejandro Reyes Cardenas, Rector

“Ustedes son linaje elegido, sacerdocio real, nación santa; proclamen las maravillas de Aquel que los llamó de las tinieblas a su luz admirable.” (Antífona antes del Evangelio)

Queridos hermanos y hermanas: Gracia y paz de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Este próximo sábado celebraremos el Día de la Independencia de los Estados Unidos. Mientras seguimos orando por este hermoso país, pedimos al Señor que nos ayude a recordar que estamos llamados a ser una nación santa y que Él también nos ha llamado de las tinieblas a su luz admirable. La santidad es una llamada a seguir de cerca a Jesús y a hacer de Él la prioridad de nuestras vidas. Como solía decir la Madre Teresa: “No es solamente el privilegio de unos pocos, sino un llamado para todos.” La primera lectura de este domingo nos ofrece una profunda lección sobre la hospitalidad espiritual, donde la mujer sunamita reconoce al profeta Eliseo como un “hombre santo de Dios” y le hace un lugar en su vida. Es una gran exhortación para nosotros en tiempos en los que parece que estamos perdiendo este gran valor; cuando vemos y tratamos a los demás como extraños, olvidando que todos somos hermanos y hermanas que tenemos a Dios como Padre. El Evangelio nos confronta con una verdad que a veces no contemplamos lo suficiente: todo lo que hacemos a los demás se lo hacemos al Señor, incluso cuando ofrecemos tan solo un vaso de agua. Oro para que no dejemos pasar la presencia del Señor, que constantemente viene a nosotros de maneras misteriosas. La Escritura nos recuerda: “Quien recibe a un profeta por ser profeta, recibirá recompensa de profeta; y quien recibe a un justo por ser justo, recibirá recompensa de justo.” (Mateo 10, 37-42). El Evangelio de hoy nos dice que el Señor no quiere ocupar solamente un lugar en nuestras vidas; quiere ser el centro de ellas. No debemos interpretar esto como una actitud egoísta de un Dios que lo quiere todo para sí mismo. Al contrario, Él se ha vaciado a sí mismo para darnos su propia vida. Cuando Él se convierte en el centro de nuestras vidas, ilumina todo lo que nos rodea y nos hace más capaces de amar a los demás como Él nos ha amado: con un amor incondicional, puro y sacrificial. Verdaderamente necesitamos hacer espacio para que Dios actúe en nuestras vidas. Como la mujer de la primera lectura, es necesario abrir un lugar para lo trascendente. Esta mujer, al recibir al profeta, sin saberlo se abre a la gracia de Dios. Del mismo modo, nosotros debemos dar prioridad a nuestra conexión con Dios por encima de nuestras búsquedas materiales y compartir los dones que hemos recibido. Nunca podremos devolverle a Dios todo lo que ha hecho por nosotros, porque en su amor inmenso nos ha bendecido en Cristo y, en su generosidad, nos ha entregado incluso su propia vida. Oro para que, como familia de fe de IHM, podamos ser una comunidad más acogedora y generosa, atenta a la Palabra del Señor, quien nos ha elegido en Cristo. ¡Feliz 4 de julio de 2026! Sinceramente en Cristo, Padre Alejandro Reyes Cárdenas Rector

Saint Paul

A Jew of Tarsus, in modern-day Turkey, Saul, a Roman citizen, educated at the Jewish school in Jerusalem, had also a good Greek-Hellenistic formation: he knew Greek and Latin. The son of a curtain weaver, he also learned his father's craft. Like many Jews at that time, he had a second Greco-Latin name: Paul, chosen for simple assonance with his own name. Stubborn, courageous and bold, Saul was a skilled debater. His personality emerges in the Acts of the Apostles and his 13 Letters. He never met Jesus while Our Lord was on Earth, and was among the first to persecute Christians, whom he considered a dangerous sect to be overthrown. In the Scriptures he is mentioned for the first time in the narrative of the stoning of St. Stephen - the first Christian martyr - in Jerusalem. A proud advocate of Jewish tradition, Saul, “sought to destroy the Church: he went into the houses, took men and women, and put them in prison” (Acts 8: 3). The disciples feared him, and to escape the persecution, some fled to various cities, including Damascus. Read the full article online at:

San. Pablo

Judío de Tarso, en la actual Turquía, Saulo, ciudadano romano, culto, instruido en la escuela judía de Jerusalén, tenía una buena formación greco-helenista, conocía el griego y el latín. Hijo de un tejedor de tendales, había aprendido también el arte manufacturero del padre. Como muchos judíos de esa época, tenía un segundo nombre greco-latino: Pablo, elegido por una simple asonancia con su propio nombre. Impetuoso, valeroso y audaz, tenía buena capacidad dialéctica. Su personalidad emerge de los Hechos de los Apóstoles y de las 13 Cartas. No conoce a Jesús y es entre los primeros en perseguir a los cristianos, considerados como una secta peligrosa por derrotar. En las Escrituras es mencionado por primera vez en la narración de la lapidación de Esteban – primer mártir cristiano – en Jerusalén. Orgulloso sostenedor de la tradición judía, Saulo “trataba de destruir la Iglesia: entraba en las casas, tomaba hombres y mujeres y los metía a la cárcel” (Hech 8,3). Los discípulos lo temen y para huir de la persecución algunos se dispersan en varias ciudades, entre las cuales Damasco. Ver artículo completo en:
