García Cuerva: “La única salida es ser como el Buen Samaritano”

La República Argentina celebra su Independencia y, en este marco, el arzobispo de Buenos Aires, Monseñor Jorge Ignacio García Cuerva, presidió el tradicional Te Deum en la Catedral Metropolitana. Durante su homilía, inspirada en la parábola del Buen Samaritano, invitó a superar la indiferencia, la corrupción y las divisiones para avanzar hacia la reconstrucción de la fraternidad y la unidad nacional.

Mozambican bishops: Bishop Osório's death can become a path of renewal

Following a meeting with Pope Leo XIV in the Vatican, Mozambique's bishops say the murder of Bishop Osório Afonso must become a path towards truth, reconciliation, and renewal for both the Church and the country.

By Fr Bernardo Suate

The Mozambican bishops said Pope Leo's closeness and solidarity have been evident not only in what he has written and said publicly, but also in the encounter they shared with him.

"During our meeting, we realised just how well informed he is about the reality we are living in Mozambique," the bishops said.

The Church in Mozambique has been living through this tragedy with profound sorrow and concern ever since news of Bishop Osório's killing emerged on the morning of 6 June. The Episcopal Conference appointed Bishop Estêvão Ângelo Fernando of Alto Molócuê as its representative to accompany the situation in the Diocese of Quelimane.

Many unanswered questions

Conference President Bishop Inácio Saure said that, officially, very little is still known about the circumstances surrounding the bishop's death.

"The only information made public is that the bishop was shot with a high-calibre firearm—not an ordinary handgun, but a weapon of war," he said.

He explained that, following the murder, the diocesan Chancellor, one of Bishop Osório's closest collaborators, was arrested. More recently, another priest, Fr Celso, was also detained, while the mobile phones of Bishop Osório and Bishop Estêvão Ângelo Fernando—who was appointed Apostolic Administrator of Quelimane—were seized. According to Bishop Saure, the entire investigation remains in the hands of Mozambique's National Criminal Investigation Service (SERNIC).

"As a Church, we have received no official information about what has happened," he said.

The bishops stressed that the fundamental questions remain unanswered: Who killed Bishop Osório? Who ordered the crime? And what was the motive?

Concern over speculation

The bishops also expressed concern about reports circulating in newspapers and on social media suggesting that the murder was purely the result of internal tensions within the Church.

Archbishop João Carlos of Maputo said the killing had deeply shaken the faithful, many of whom continue to ask how it was possible for a bishop to be murdered in his own home.

From The San Joselito Youth Group

Dear Community,

The San Joselito Youth Group would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who has supported us in so many meaningful ways through your encouragement, generous donations, and especially through your prayers. We are truly blessed to belong to such a caring and faith-filled community. Over the past three years, our youth ministry has grown in incredible ways. What began with just five teens has now flourished into a group of nearly twenty-five young people actively seeking to grow more in faith and fellowship. Because of your continued support, we have been able to do more youth events, social gatherings, and retreats that help our teens deepen their relationship with Christ and with one another.

Thanks to your generosity, we were able to reach our fundraising goal to attend the Steubenville Youth Conference next weekend, one of the most impactful retreats of the year. Our teens are filled with joy and anticipation as they prepare for this powerful encounter with the Lord.

We humbly ask that you keep the San Joselito Youth Group in your prayers as we continue to grow and strengthen this ministry. Please know that we also keep our entire parish community in prayer with gratitude and love.

May God bless you abundantly.

– The San Joselito Youth Group

Del San Joselito Youth Group

Querida Comunidad,

El Grupo Juvenil San Joselito desea expresar su más sincero agradecimiento a todos ustedes por el apoyo que nos han brindado de tantas maneras significativas: mediante su ánimo, sus generosas donaciones y, especialmente, sus oraciones. Verdaderamente somos bendecidos al pertenecer a una comunidad tan solidaria y llena de fe. En los últimos tres años, nuestro ministerio juvenil ha crecido de manera increíble. Lo que comenzó con solo cinco adolescentes ahora ha florecido en un grupo de casi veinticinco jóvenes que desean crecer más en la fe y en la fraternidad. Gracias a su apoyo continuo, hemos podido realizar más eventos juveniles, convivencias y retiros que ayudan a nuestros jóvenes a profundizar su relación con Cristo y entre ellos mismos.

Gracias a su generosidad, logramos alcanzar nuestra meta para asistir a la Conferencia Juvenil de Steubenville el próximo fin de semana, uno de los retiros más impactantes del año. Nuestros jóvenes están llenos de alegría y expectativa mientras se preparan para este poderoso encuentro con el Señor.

Les pedimos humildemente que continúen manteniendo al Grupo Juvenil San Joselito en sus oraciones mientras seguimos creciendo y fortaleciendo este ministerio. Sepan que también mantenemos a toda nuestra comunidad parroquial en oración, con gratitud y cariño.

Que Dios los bendiga abundantemente.

– Grupo Juvenil San Joselito

Saint of the Day / Santo del dia

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

The blood of martyrs is the seed of saints. Nine years after the Jesuits Isaac Jogues and Jean de Lelande were tomahawked by Iroquois warriors, a baby girl was born near the place of their martyrdom, Auriesville, New York.

Kateri Tekakwitha's mother was a Christian Algonquin, taken captive by the Iroquois and given as wife to the chief of the Mohawk clan, the boldest and fiercest of the Five Nations. When she was four, Tekakwitha lost her parents and little brother in a smallpox epidemic that left her disfigured and half blind. She was adopted by an uncle, who succeeded her father as chief. He hated the coming of the Blackrobes—Jesuit missionaries—but could do nothing to them because a peace treaty with the French required their presence in villages with Christian captives. She was moved by the words of three Blackrobes who lodged with her uncle, but fear of him kept her from seeking instruction.

Tekakwitha refused to marry a Mohawk brave, and at 19 finally got the courage to take the step of converting. She was baptized with the name Kateri—Catherine—on Easter Sunday.

Santos. Aquila y Prisca (o Priscila)

La sangre de los mártires

En 1646, el poblado mohawk de Ossernenon, cerca de la actual Auriesville (Nueva York), era un territorio muy poco acogedor para los misioneros cristianos: el jesuita P. Isaac Jogues y el laico Jean de la Lande fueron asesinados allí ese año. Cuatro años antes, en el mismo poblado, el P. Jogues había sufrido una tortura tan prolongada y brutal que fue considerado un "mártir viviente" por el Papa Urbano VIII; y su compañero de misión, René Goupil, había sido asesinado. Tres de los ocho Mártires de Norteamérica regaron con su sangre la tierra de esta pequeña aldea indígena. Se podría haber pensado que la historia terminaba allí....

Una cristiana mohawk

...Pero diez años después, en 1656, nació en ese mismo poblado una niña de madre cristiana algonquina que había sido capturada por los mohawks y casada con el jefe del clan. Los padres y el hermano de la niña murieron en una epidemia de viruela que a ella le dejó la cara marcada y los ojos dañados. La llamaban "Tekakwitha", "la que choca con las cosas", lo que demuestra que tenía la visión deteriorada. La niña fue adoptada por su tío, que a su vez se convirtió en jefe.

Tekakwitha aprendió las artes femeninas tradicionales de su tribu: confeccionar ropa, tejer cestas, preparar la comida y ayudar en las cosechas. Escuchaba a los sacerdotes franceses que pasaban por su poblado, pero no se atrevía a acercarse más a ellos. No con su tío y muchos de su clan tan hostiles al cristianismo.
