Pope on Amoris laetitia: What Church do people meet when most fragile?

Pope Leo XIV encourages Bishops from around the world to share what has emerged in their Churches over the ten years since the publication of Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation Amoris laetitia, and urges them to courageously confront the questions and difficulties that families face today.See full article at: https://www.vaticannews.va/en/pope/news/2026-09/final-report-of-synod-s-canon-lawcommission-published.html

El Papa: Una Iglesia unida al mundo en busca del bien común

Recordar que «la Iglesia no está "por encima de" o "junto" al mundo, sino que está injertada en él» constituyó uno de los mensajes principales que el Papa León XIV dirigió a los fieles en la Plaza de San Pedro durante la Audiencia General de este miércoles, al motivarlos a mantener un actitud coherente con la fe que profesan. ver articulo completo en: https://www.vaticannews.va/es/papa/news/2026-10/el-papa-una-iglesia-unida-al-mundo-en-busca-del-bien-comun.html

Dr. Ruffini urges Church communicators to place human dignity at heart of AI

Addressing a Catholic media congress in Cebu, Philippines, Dr. Paolo Ruffini, Prefect of the Dicastery for Communication, invites communicators to place human dignity, authentic relationships, and the common good at the heart of artificial intelligence and digital communication. See full article at: https://www.vaticannews.va/en/vatican-city/news/2026-10/philippines-cebu-church-communicators-paolo-ruffini.html

León XIV: recemos el Rosario, consuelo de María en las dificultades de la vida

En su saludo a los peregrinos italianos al término de la audiencia general, el Papa renueva la invitación a recitar la oración mariana «tan querida por la tradición de la Iglesia». Un llamado que se hace eco del del Ángelus del domingo pasado, 4 de octubre, y del que se recitó en Lourdes, con la intención especial de que cesen las guerras y se establezca la paz entre los pueblos en conflicto.Ver articulo completo en:https://www.vaticannews.va/es/vaticano/news/2026-10/ruffini-no-hay-que-delegar-la-seguridad-en-la-ia.html

Papa León exhorta a los líderes católicos a renovarse en la fe

El Papa León XIV envió un mensaje de aliento en el camino de la renovación de la fe y el compromiso bautismal a los participantes del XI Diplomado Internacional de la Doctrin Social de la Iglesia,congreso que se llevará a cabo en Roma del 5 al 9 de octubre. Ariana P. Paolini – Ciudad del Vaticano

A través de un comunicado transmitido por el Cardenal Pietro Parolin, el Santo Padre invitó a los organizadores y asistentes del diplomado "Liderazgo para la Equidad", a hacer de la iniciativa una "ocasión propicia para renovar juntos la fe y el compromiso bautismal". El encuentro que se realiza del 5 al 9 de octubre en la capital italiana reúne 86 líderes provenientes de 16 países distintos.

En su mensaje, el Santo Padre exhortó a los participantes a "reflexionar sobre los fundamentos y principios de la doctrina social de la Iglesia a la luz de la dignidad de la persona humana", lo cual, señaló, "les permitirá afrontar con lucidez los desafíos del presente y vivir así la misión que les ha sido confiada desde el servicio y la comunión".

Una formación que afronta los nuevos desafíos

Si bien el hilo conductor del diplomado es la Doctrina Social de la Iglesia, en esta ocasión, la Academia Internacional de Líderes Católicos, busca adentrar a los participantes en un aprendizaje profundo de los principios de dignidad humana, del bien común, de la solidaridad y de la subsidiariedad aplicados, según lo expuesto en el boletín de prensa de la academia, "a los grandes desafíos que enfrentan hoy quienes ejercen responsabilidades en la política, las empresas, la educación, la Iglesia, la comunicación y la sociedad civil".En este sentido, el programa incluye temas de gran interés en la actualidad como la inteligencia artificial, las transformaciones económicas, democracia y servicio público, comunicación y desinformación, liderazgo femenino, el multilateralismo, entre otros; estos, permitirán a los asistentes "comprender un mundo que cambia a enorme velocidad y darle criterios para discernir, decidir y actuar colocando siempre a la persona humana en el centro", de acuerdo a la directora ejecutiva del centro de formación, Lara Bersano Calot.Ver articulo completo en: https://www.vaticannews.va/es/papa/news/2026-10/papa-leon-exhorta-a-los-lideres-catolicos-a-renovarse-en-la-fe.html

Gospel: Matt 22:1-14 or 22:1-10

Jesus compares God's kingdom to a king inviting guests to a wedding feast. He teaches us to accept God's invitation with ready and joyful hearts.

Prayer:
Jesus, help me say yes to God's invitation. Amen.

Saint of the Day / Santo del dia

s. Teresa de Jesús,

"De las novelas a la dura realidad
Hija de segundas nupcias de un judío convertido, Santa Teresa de Ávila nace el 28 de marzo de 1515. La feliz infancia que transcurre con sus hermanos y primos la ve fascinada por los romances caballerescos. Tras la muerte en la batalla de su hermano mayor Juan, en 1524, y la pérdida de su madre Beatriz, la joven es enviada a estudiar en el convento de las agustinas, Santa María de Gracia, donde tiene una primera crisis existencial. Después de una enfermedad grave, regresa a su casa paterna, donde es testigo de la partida de su amado hermano Rodrigo hacia las colonias españolas del otro lado del océano. En 1536 es afectada por la así llamada "gran crisis" y madura la firme decisión de ingresar en el Monasterio de las Carmelitas de la Encarnación de Ávila. Pero el padre se opone y Teresa huye de casa. Recibida por las monjas, realiza la profesión el 3 de noviembre de 1537.
"Me sentí completamente conmovida"
Su salud pronto vuelve a comprometerse. A pesar del consiguiente retorno a la familia, su caso se juzga desesperado y Teresa regresa al convento donde las monjas comienzan a prepararle el funeral. Inexplicablemente, sin embargo, en unos pocos días la enferma retoma vida. Parcialmente liberada de los compromisos de la vida de clausura debido a la convalecencia, alegre de carácter, amante de la música, la poesía, la lectura y la escritura, teje una densa red de amistades polarizando a su alrededor a varias personas deseosas por conocerla. Aun así, pronto advierte estos encuentros como motivos para distraerse de la tarea principal de la oración y vive su "segunda conversión": "Mis ojos se posaron en una imagen... Representaba a Nuestro Señor cubierto de llagas. Apenas la miré, me sentí completamente conmovida... Me arrojé a sus pies en lágrimas, y le supliqué que me diera fuerzas para no ofenderlo nunca más".

St. Theresa of Jesus

From novels to hard reality
The daughter of a Jewish convert and his second wife, Saint Teresa of Avila, was born on March 28, 1515. She had a happy childhood with her brothers and cousins, and was fascinated by novels that told tales of chivalry. After the death of her elder brother, John, in 1524 and the loss of her mother, Beatrice, the young woman was sent to study at the Augustinian Monastery of Our Lady of Grace, where she was struck by a first existential crisis. After serious illness, she returned to her father's home, and witnessed the departure of her beloved brother Rodrigo for the Spanish colonies overseas. In 1536, she was hit by the so-called "great crisis" and came to the firm decision to enter the Carmelite monastery of the Incarnation at Avila. Her father, however, was opposed, and Teresa fled home. Accepted by the nuns, she made her profession on 3 November, 1537.
